AT AN up-to-the-minute 1916 Tavern, specially erected at the rear of their beautiful home on Pensacola street, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Macfarlane entertained at one of the most elaborate social functions of this season on Monday evening.

The occasion of the party was the tenth anniversary of the marriage of the host and hostess. Above the door of the pavilion "The Inn" was a sign in huge letters and at the entrance stood a tall, stately, silver vase filled with a bouquet of St. Joseph lilies, the symbol of purity; near this vase was a huge tiger's skin and in the arms of the animal reposed another sheet of the lilies, while at the back of the tiger there was a gambling table, the tiger and the gambling table representing vice. Within the Inn quantities of green palms and ferns were massed against the walls and from the rafters were hung graceful branches of the pepper tree. Scarlet ixoras in great abundance gave a bright touch of color to the decorations with very pretty effect.

The guests were seated at twenty-six small tables, having for their centerpieces red ixoras, and the place favors were toy balloons. In the music room, where were seen Sandona portraits of the Macfarlane family, were quantities of rare American beauty roses and in the dining and breakfast rooms African daisies were attractively arranged. The decorating was done by Mr. Ernest Parker, who is famous for his artistic decorative ability.

The guests as they arrived were greeted by Mr. Walter Macfarlane, Miss Carol Low and Mr. Vivien Dyer, who led them through the Macfarlane home to the Inn. Later, after they had all assembled the hostess came into the room, and made a stunning picture in her costume of white satin brocaded in gold with a coat of green tulle ornamented with gold beads. At the request of their hostess all of the fair guests wore afternoon frocks and garden hats and the men were in business suits.

During the supper Mrs. Alice Hayward sang a number of the latest popular airs and danced a modified Hawaiian hula. She was accompanied on the piano by Miss Elsa-Melnecke. Another delightful feature of the evening's entertainment was an exhibition of the Lulu Pado by Miss Carol Low and Vivien Dyer. Stars from the Bevan Opera company were also among the entertainers.

After dinner "Dude" Miller's singing quintet made music for the dancers that lasted till the first faint streaks of dawn were seen peeping through the black clouds. During the early evening as the dancers swayed and twirled to the strains of popular airs a huge arrow, was set in action and as the dance came to a close pointed to one of the couples. The lady dancing was given as a favor a handsome poster decorated in harmony with the piece then being played by the orchestra, the posters having been done for the occasion by Miss Beatrice White, Miss Harriet Lucas received "My Wife is Dancing Mad," "Hone Kau Wiliwili" was given to Miss Mary Lucas, Mrs. Harold Castle drew "By the Beautiful Sea," "The High Cost of Loving" was taken by Mrs. Walter Dillingham and Mrs. Edward Tenney drew "This is the Life."

Many handsome gowns were worn. Among those gowned with noticeable attractiveness were:

Miss Carol Low, who assisted the hostess during the evening, was very charming and girlish in a frock of soft pink material and a tulle bonnet.

Princess Kalaniana'ole wore one of the handsomest costumes at the function. It was of black satin richly ornamented with jet and her hat was trimmed with rare feather fancies.

In a fluffy white dress and a dainty little Castle cap, Miss Rose Herbert made a very pretty picture.

Miss Jessie Kennedy was stunning in a costume of black satin and net made with the full skirt decreed by Dame Fashion and long chiffon sleeves. Her hat was black ornamented with feathers.

Miss Charlotte Dowsett wore a simple gown of pink material and a large portrait hat of tulle and feathers.

Mrs. E. D. Tenney was strikingly gowned in white with a large white hat.

Among the very stunning gowns was that worn by Mrs. Robert Shingle. It was one of the black and white combination so popular this season, the black costume being lightened with a white satin coat.

Mrs. Charles F. Chillingworth was in black, a touch of color being given in the costume with a corsage of yellow roses.

Mrs. Walter Dillingham was most attractive in her gown of bright blue tulle and her picture hat of black. In her white lingerie gown and attractive hat, Mrs. Harold Castle was one of the loveliest of the ladies at the function.

Among those present were Prince and Princess Kalaniana'ole, Miss Jessie Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. L. Abrams, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dillingham, Miss Charlotte Dowsett, Mrs. August Dreier, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Falk, Miss Rose Herbert, Miss Lorna Jarrett, Miss Aileen Jarrett, Miss Ruth Anderson, Mrs. C. O. Berger, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Clark, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chillingworth, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Castle, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Campbell, Miss Peggy Center, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Dougherty, Mr. and Mrs. William Rawlins, Dr. and Mrs. George Straub, Miss Ruth Soper, Mr. and Mrs. Robert W.

Shingle, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Tenney, Miss Wilhelmina Tenney, Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Thompson, Mrs. Frank Woods, Miss Carol Low, Miss Mary Lucas, Miss Harriet Lucas, Mr. and Mrs. William Lucas, Miss Helen Macfarlane, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Macfarlane, Miss Lady Macfarlane, Mrs. Norma Macfarlane, Miss Thelma Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Potter, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Purdy, Colonel Sam Parker, Messrs. Hedemann, Lew Henderson, Stanley Kennedy, Francis Brown, Marcus Blison, Vivien Dyer, George Collins.

Reception at Kalkoo.

One of the very delightful affairs of this week at which the members of the younger set were guests, was the reception at Kalkoo, in honor of Miss Phoebe and Miss Bud Carter, who returned to Honolulu for the summer in the Matsonia. Shortly after the arrival of the steamer to the George R. Carter country home and an enjoyable day was spent at swimming, tennis and other outdoor sports. Among those who were present at the affair were Miss Phoebe Carter, Miss Bud Carter, Miss Mary von Holt, Miss Hilda von Holt, Miss Catherine von Holt, Miss Ethel Glade, Miss Lila McDonald, Miss Betty Case, Miss Ruth Soper, Miss Ruth Anderson, Miss Pauline Schaefer, Miss Margaret Jones, Miss Catherine Jones, Miss Helen Jones, Miss Helen Spalding, Miss Thelma Murphy, Miss Nora Swanzy, Miss Rosamond Swanzy, Miss Peggy Center, Miss Helen Gentry, Miss Ruth Gartley, Miss Carol Low, Miss Aileen Dowsett, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Dowsett, Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds McGrew, Dickson Nott, Gilchrist Hatch, Mr. Sewell, Alan Lowrey, Dickson Nott, Fred Wichman, Jack McDonald, Lieut. Howard Douglas Bode, Lieut. Fales, Arthur Bode, Lieut. Charles Lyman, Francis Brown, Vivien Dyer, Fred Schaefer and Walter Spalding.

Miss Rose Herbert a Hostess.

Miss Rose Herbert was one of the charming hostesses of this week when she entertained at a delightfully informal tea at the Country Club on Monday afternoon. The affair was given in honor of the Misses Ward, two attractive society girls from the mainland who are visiting in Honolulu this summer. The spacious lanais at the Country Club were transformed into a bower of pink and gold shimmer, with palms adding charm to the effect. As the guests mingled together "Dude" Miller's quintet sang and played pretty Hawaiian airs. Miss Herbert's guests included the Misses Ward, Miss Ruth Soper, Miss Ruth Anderson, Miss Sylvia Purvis, Mrs. Reynolds McGrew, Miss Laura Atherton, Mrs. Jack Guard, Miss Mary Lucas, Miss Harriet Lucas, Miss Wilhelmina Tenney, Miss Alice Macfarlane, Miss Bertha Kopke, Mrs. Ralph Clark, Miss Pauline Schaefer, Miss Dorothy Gould, Miss Marion Chaplin, Mrs. Paul Bates, Miss Peggy Center and Miss Henrietta Schwartz.

Casper Bennett.

A pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Andrew's Cathedral on Tuesday morning shortly after the arrival of the Matson steamship Matsonia, when Miss Ethel Bennett became the bride of Mr. George Casper, the violinist. Miss Bennett arrived in the Matsonia at seven-thirty and at ten o'clock she and Mr. Casper were married by Canon Ault. The bride looked charming in a white crepe de chine made short with the high waist. She wore a large white picture hat and carried a Colonial bouquet of gardenias and white roses. Mr. and Mrs. Royal D. Mead stood with the couple. Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom motored to Haleiwa where they remained during the rest of the week. Mrs. Casper is of a prominent family in Pasadena and Mr. Casper is an Austrian violinist, well-known in this city, where he has given concerts and has a host of friends. Mr. Casper came to Honolulu on account of the war, not being able to continue his journey around the world and it was just recently that he decided to remain here permanently.

Dance at the Country Club.

One of the most enjoyable affairs of this week was the moonlight dance at the Country Club last night. The moon was at its best and it was early morning before the last of the guests departed from the club. A Hawaiian quintet club played for the dancing and at 11 a supper was served. About 200 Country Club members and their friends were present at the affair.

Hilo Girl Weds in San Diego.

HILO, Hawaii, June 25.—In San Diego on June 10 was celebrated the marriage of a Hilo young lady, when Miss Dorothy Edna Richards, daughter of Mrs. E. E. Richards of this city became the bride of Edgar E. Webb. The Rev. W. E. Crabtree officiated at the wedding.

The marriage took place at the home of the bride's mother and the drawing room was beautifully decorated for the occasion. Among the few present, for it was a family affair, were the Misses Marjorie and Norma Richards, Mrs. Sarah W. Sumner and Ralph W. Sumner.

Mr. Webb is a well-known young man of San Diego and is connected with a big business house. Miss Richards left Hilo about two years ago and her mother and sisters joined her in San Diego about nine months ago.

Captain and Mrs. Kirby B. Crittenden Entertain.

Captain and Mrs. Kirby B. Crittenden entertained informally at dinner at the Pleasanton on Tuesday night before the dance. Pink roses and sweet peas were used artistically in decorating the table, and corsages of the same flowers were used. Covers were laid for Lieut. and Mrs. C. E. Smith, Lieut. and Mrs. Bruce Cargan, Paymaster and Mrs. T. Cochran, Dr. Walter Cress, Ensign and Mrs. Paul Bates, Ensign and Mrs. F. W. Scanlan, Ensign and Mrs. H. B. Berry, Lieut. McCord and Lieut. Garth.

Mrs. A. Gartenberg Entertains at Luncheon.

Mrs. A. Gartenberg was hostess at a prettily appointed luncheon on Wednesday at her home at Waikiki. The table was most artistically decorated with pink carnations and purple tulle tied in graceful bows, which was very effective. Mrs. Gartenberg's guests included Mrs. James F. Morgan, Mrs. C. Soper, Mrs. Jack Guard, Miss Ramona Morgan, Miss Laura Atherton, Miss Henrietta Schwartz, Miss Brown and Miss Cleo Case.

Mrs. Virginia Isenberg's Dinner.

One of the very delightful dinners which preceded the moonlight dance at the Country Club last night was that at which Mr. Reginald Bloomfield Brown entertained. An attractive arrangement of flowers ornamented the center of the table and hand-painted cards marked the place of each guest. Covers were laid for Miss Lila McDonald, Miss Betty Case, Miss Sally Brown, Miss Mary von Holt, Miss Nora Swanzy, Miss Harriet Hatch, Lieut. Eugene Fales, Bert Clark, Bob White and the host.

Judge and Mrs. Ballou Entertain.

A delightful affair of the week was the dance at which Judge and Mrs. Sidney M. Ballou entertained on Tuesday evening at their beautiful home in Nuuanu Valley. Vari-colored electric lights effectively lighted the grounds surrounding the house and within quantities of purple bougainvillea and bamboo were gracefully arranged. On the lanai where supper was served graceful palms were seen. "Dude" Miller's quintet club played for the dancing. There were 75 guests present at the affair.

Moonlight Party in Manoa.

Miss Helen Center, Miss Mele Williams, Miss Ruth Stacker, Miss Miriam Stacker, Miss Sybil Carter, Miss India Wayson, Sam Carter, Blaine Stevens, Will Noonan, Sam Stacker, Dr. Jack Peden and Don Day are to be guests of Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Wayson at an informal supper and tramping party this evening at their country home in Manoa Valley. The guests are to leave town at five o'clock and will return later by moonlight.

Honolulu Man Marries in the East.

Cupid has again been busy with the heart of a Honolulu boy. The latest victim is Dr. Jay M. Kuhns, who at tended both McKinley High School and the College of Hawaii. On the 12th of June Dr. Kuhns and Miss Eula Urban of St. Louis were married at the home of the bride's sister, and in the near future they will come to Hawaii to make their home.

At the wedding Gavin Bush, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Fred Bush of Honolulu, was best man.

Dr. Kuhns until four years ago was a resident of Honolulu, but at that time went to St. Louis to study medicine, and it was there that he met his bride. Since he has won his diploma at Washington University, Dr. Kuhns has received an appointment as a physician at the Queen's Hospital.

It is not known as yet just when Dr. and Mrs. Kuhns will return to the islands, but the many friends of the young physician are planning a hearty welcome for them when they do reach Hawaii.

Honolulu Boys Graduated from Annapolis.

Among the Honolulu boys to return to Honolulu this week was Mr. Gilchrist Hatch, who graduated from Annapolis this year. Mr. Hatch is the only son of F. M. Hatch, and is one of the most popular young men in Honolulu. He has received an appointment to the Maryland, and it is expected that he will join the cruiser when she comes here with the K-class submarines.

Another of the Honolulu boys who finished the naval academy this year was Mr. Ivan Graham. Mr. Graham, too, has been appointed to the Maryland, and in all probability will return to Honolulu when the cruiser makes her return voyage here with the submarines.

Mr. and Mrs. Templeton Crocker Entertained.

Mr. and Mrs. Templeton Crocker were guests of honor at an attractively appointed dinner party last evening at which Mr. Harry Macfarlane was host at the Macfarlane home in Pali. Pua, Rose and maidenhair ferns were arranged in the table decorations and daintily ornamented cards marked the place of each guest. Mr. Macfarlane entertained Mr. and Mrs. Templeton Crocker, Miss Marion Newhall, Judge and Mrs. Will Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Dowsett, Mr. and Mrs. George Potter, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dillingham.

Dear to the Hearts of the Women.

DR. T. FELIX GOURAUD'S

Oriental Cream

OR MAGICAL BEAUTIFIER

An Indispensable and Necessary

Article for Particular Women who Desire to Retain a Youthful Appearance.

Every woman owes it to herself and loved ones to retain the charm of youth nature has bestowed upon her. For over half a century this article has been used by actresses, singers and women of fashion. It renders the skin like the softness of velvet leaving it clear and pearly white and is highly desirable when preparing for daily or evening attire. As it is a liquid and non-greasy preparation, it remains unnoticed. When attending dances, balls or other entertainments, it prevents a greasy appearance of the complexion caused by the skin becoming heated.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream cures skin diseases and relieves sunburn. Removes Tan, Pimples, Blackheads, Moth Patches, Rash, Freckles and Vulgar Redness.

Yellow and Muddy skin, giving a delicately clear and refined complexion which every woman desires.

For sale by Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.
